For auction is this AMAZING pair of Polk speakers model SDA 2 in Black. the picture does not do justice to these speakers that definitely sound much better than most speakers do today for under $1000.

Please follow the link to the Polk site to read all the specs and characteristics on these speakers and you will be hooked!!

I have the boxes for my other SDA set for shipping, so no extra $$ will be charged to ship these beauties, but I much rather have someone local win the auction, as these speakers are heavy and hence will be expensive to ship. Still, well worth the price.

If needed, I can take more pictures although my digital camera is nothing to write home about, so cannot guarantee high quality pictures. Please freely ask any questions and in case you wondered why these are for auction, I got their bigger brothers so these are now expendable. Serial numbers are L22795 for left and R21302 for the right channel.

Thanks and good luck!!
